

Review 1
Sentence Types

Part A

The sentences below contain examples of the four sentence types you have studied. Read each sentence, and then put D for Declarative, IMP for Imperative, I for Interrogative, or E for Exclamatory. Put the proper end mark on the sentence.

1. Saskatchewan is one of the Prairie Provinces. __D__
2. Do you know the names of the other Prairie Provinces _____
3. Tell me the name of the province west of Saskatchewan _____
4. Don't spill your coffee on my books _____
5. When it is 3 o'clock in Toronto, what time is it in Saskatoon _____
6. Let me know when it is time to go _____
7. Saskatchewan's main crop is wheat _____
8. In Swift Current, they use some of the wheat to make pasta _____
9. Some people think Saskatchewan is quite flat _____
10. Go see for yourself how wrong they are _____
11. Do you know what sort of animals live in Saskatchewan _____
12. There are deer, antelope, bear and gophers _____
13. Look at this picture of a deer jumping over a fence _____
14. What a high fence it is _____
15. Do you know how far it is from Regina to the US border _____