

Exercise 4

Some of the sentences below can be joined by but. For others, joining by but wouldn't make sense. If a sentence would make sense, place a 0 on the line. If it wouldn't make sense, put an X on the line.

1. Fredericton used to be called "Frederick's Town." It was named after a member of the British Royal Family. X
2. The city was founded between 1783 and 1785. There had been a lot of settlements before then. ____
3. It had been an important site for the local native people. They had camps and a burial ground there. ____
4. The site had also been a French military settlement. In 1691, the French left the place. ____
5. Later there was a British fort there. A grand stone barracks was built in the town. ____
6. The St. John River flows through New Brunswick. It begins in the hills of northern Maine in the United States. ____
7. The river is famous for its salmon. People come from around the world to fish in it. ____
8. Hydro power is generated on the river. New Brunswick also has a nuclear power station. ____
9. There used to be a steamboat service between the city of Fredericton and Saint John. Now only pleasure boats sail on the river. ____
10. At Saint John, the river squeezes through a narrow gorge. It forms the Reversing Falls. ____

Show your answers to your teacher.

SAMPLE EXERCISE
UNIT 2.2