

The sentences below are correct, but they are not very interesting. Rewrite the sentences, putting at least one adjective in each sentence where you think this would help make the sentences more interesting.

Hint: Underline the nouns first. A noun is a person, place, or thing.

This will tell you which words can be described by an adjective.

1. The moose threw back its head and bellowed.

The huge moose threw back its gigantic head and bellowed.

2. The beaver dammed off the stream.

---

3. Geese flew overhead in a vee.

---

4. The fox cubs played in the grass.

---

5. The ground squirrel yipped when it saw the hawk.

---

6. The herd of bison thundered across the grassland.

---

7. Dinosaurs lived in Alberta millions of years ago.

---

8. The sound of the wolves howling sent shivers down my spine.

---

9. The robin comes back in spring.

---

10. The tourists saw a polar bear.

---

Check the nouns in the Answer Key. Then show your sentences to your teacher.